Financial Agreement

As a courtesy to our patients, we will help you process your insurance claims. All insurance information must be provided as requested to aide in filing your claims. It is your responsibility as the insured to understand your dental policy. We must emphasize that our relationship is with you, our patient, not with your insurance carrier. Any assistance with insurance matters granted by the doctor(s) will be given strictly as a courtesy and implies no responsibility by the doctor or his/her staff for filing claims, following through after claims have been filed or confirmation of benefits. You may direct your insurance company to pay benefits directly to our practice by signing the authorization on the assignment of benefits agreement line below. Your estimated co-payment for treatment is provided. Your estimated co-payment may be adjusted after the time of treatment depending upon final reconciliation of insurance payments. All chargers you incur are your responsibility regardless of your insurance coverage.

I, the undersigned, hereby agree to reimburse Reston Dental Care the fees of any collection agency, which may be based on a percentage at a maximum of 35% of the debt, and all costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, Reston Dental Care may incur in such collection efforts. Interest will be computed at the rate of 1% per month (12% per annum) on all account balances beginning 30 days after the monies have become due. I agree to pay returned check charges of $25.00 per returned check.

Reston Dental Care reserves the right to charge $75 to $100 for appointments canceled or broken without 24 hours advance notice.

I agree that this financial agreement will remain in full force and effect until revoked by me in writing and receipt acknowledged in writing by Reston Dental Care.

SUMMARY OF NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

A detailed Notice of our office Privacy Practices is available upon request.

The following summary outlines how our office will protect your health information, your rights as a patient and our common practices in dealing with your health information.

Uses and Disclosures of Health Information. We will use and disclose your health information in order to treat you or to assist other health care providers in treating you. We will also use and disclose your health information in order to obtain payment for our services or to allow insurance companies to process insurance claims for services rendered to you by us or other health care providers. Finally, we may disclose your health information for certain limited operational activities such as quality assessment, licensing, accreditation and training of students.

Uses and Disclosures Based on Your Authorization. Except as stated in more detail in the Notice of Privacy Practices, we will not use or disclose your health information without your written authorization.

Uses and Disclosures Not Requiring Your Authorization. In the following circumstances, we may disclose your health information without your written authorization:

- To family members or close friends who are involved in your health care;
- For certain limited research purposes;
- For purposes of public health and safety;
- To Government agencies for purposes of their audits, investigations and other oversight activities;
- To government authorities to prevent child abuse or domestic violence;
- To the FDA to report product defects or incidents;
- To law enforcement authorities to protect public safety or to assist in apprehending criminal offenders;
- When required by court orders, search warrants, subpoenas and as otherwise required by the law.

Patient Rights. As our patient, you have the following rights:

- To have access to and/or a copy of your health information;
- To receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made of your health information;
- To request restrictions as to how your health information is used or disclosed;
- To request that we communicate with you in confidence;
- To request that we amend your health information;
- To receive notice of our privacy practices.

If you have a question, concern or complaint regarding our privacy practices, please submit your concerns in writing to:
